ARTICLE III – ALLEGIANCE

The Department recognizes and affirms its allegiance and subordination to the National Headquarters Marine Corps League, INC. and the Department of Kentucky.

ARTICLE IV - PURPOSE

Section 1. To preserve the traditions and to promote the interests of the Marine Corps. To band those who are now serving in the United States Marine Corps and those who have been honorably discharged from that service together in fellowship that they may effectively promote the ideals of American freedom and democracy. To aid voluntarily and to render assistance to all Marines, FMF Corpsman, and FMF Navy Chaplains, as well as their widows and orphans.

To perpetuate the history of the United States Marine Corps and by fitting acts to observe the anniversaries of historical occasions of particular interest to Marines.

ARTICLE V – NATURE

Section 1. This Detachment is a nonprofit, Veterans, service organization and membership therein does not affect or increase liability for the military.

Section 2. This Detachment will be non-political and will not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles or for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office

Section 3. This detachment will be Non-Discrimination and shall never take part in any labor or management. dispute or issue.

- a. Shall not be sectarian, political, and partisan.
- b. Shall not be based on race, color, creed, nationality, or sex.
- c. Shall not be used as a medium of political ambition or preferment.
- d. Shall not use former or present rank or former or present civilian position as the basis for special consideration and preferment.

ARTICLE VI – REGULAR MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership is a privilege and the detachment shall be the sole judge of its memberships restricted to the following:

- (A) Marines who are serving or have served honorably as determined by the last DD214 or certificate of discharge that the applicant received. A General Discharge under Honorable Conditions is acceptable.
- (B) U.S Navy Personnel who are serving or have served honorably have served honorably as determined by the last DD214 or certificate of discharge in the United States Navy and who have trained with Marine FMF units in excess of ninety (90) days and earned the Marine Corps device (clasp)worn on the service uniform ribbon (i.e. Southwest Asia Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal etc)or earned the FMF Enlisted Warfare Specialist Device (1 October 2006 to present) or the FMF Officer insignia(1 Jan 2006 to present)which must be noted on the DD214 form. Exception, a member that has been officially charged and is pending a “Hearing Board” in accordance with the National Administrative Procedures, may be temporarily suspended by the Jurisdictional Judge Advocate pending the results of Chapter Nine.

ARTICLE VII – ASSOCIATE AND HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Associate Member. Those individuals not qualified for regular membership in the Marine Corps League who espouse the principles and purposes of the Marine Corps League as contained in its Congressional Charter may upon application to a Detachment be accepted for associate membership in the Marine Corps League and meet the following criteria:

- A. Individuals must have reached the statutory minimum age for enlistment in the Armed Forces.
- B. Individuals may join who have never served in a branch of the Armed Forces.
- C. Individuals who are serving or have served honorably in other branches of the Armed Forces.
- D. Individuals applying for associate membership must join through a Marine Corps League Detachment

Section 2. Honorary Member. The Commandant of the Detachment at his discretion may issue honorary membership to those persons who have been of extraordinary service to the Nation, to the community, to the United States Marine Corps, or the Marine Corps League. The Honorary Member will not be entitled to the rights, privileges and benefits available to a regular or associate member. Payment of dues or initiation fees is not required. A suitable certificate may be issued to honor or recognize the person. All Honorary memberships are for a one- year period only and must be renewed by the Detachment.

ARTICLE VIII – FINANCE

Section 1. The revenues of this Detachment are derived from annual membership dues and from such sources as approved by the membership body.

Section 2. Dues are largely influenced by National and Department bylaws. This Detachment may, upon approval by the majority of members present at a regular business meeting, impose any additional dues over and above mandatory payments to National and Department of Kentucky.

Section 3. No dues will be prepaid by the Detachment for members without special consideration by and approval of the majority of members present at a regular business meeting. Such considerations may be limited to extensive medical expenses, long-term unemployment and medical care on a case by case basis. For continuity, these matters should be handled prior to the member's expiration date. Nothing in these bylaws precludes awarding a member in good standing a Permanent Life Membership (PLM) who is permanently confined to a medical facility or bed, in the spirit of taking care of our own.

Section 4. Dues must be paid prior to the expiration date in order to maintain office, whether elected or appointed, and to maintain voting privileges. Membership renewal privilege will terminate following a one year period after the last day of the expiration month.

Section 5. Bonding. All Detachment Officers handling detachment funds will be bonded. The Detachment Commandant and the Detachment Adjutant/Paymaster (or Detachment Paymaster, as applicable) is covered under a blanket bond held and paid for by National Headquarters. The bonding of other Detachment Officers will be arranged by and at the expense of this Detachment.

Section 6. An audit will be conducted annually within 60 days of the installation of officers and each time following the change of the Paymaster. The records of all staff officers who have accountability for monies and for property of this Detachment shall be also be subject to annual audit.

Section 7. Audit Committee. An audit committee will be formed of the following: Two members from the Board of Trustees and a member from the Detachment general membership to be appointed by the Commandant. A report of the findings of that audit will be made to the general membership at a regular scheduled business meeting. A motion to accept the report as read, seconded, and voted on is required.

Section 8. Reimbursable Expenses. The Detachment may reimburse all officers and any other member that is conducting official business for the Detachment. All reasonable expenses incurred in completing the assignment may be reimbursed.

Section 9. Budget Committee. A budget committee will be formed of the following: Commandant, Paymaster and three (3) members from the general membership appointed by the Commandant. The budget will coincide with the current term of office, i.e. 1 July to 30 June of the following year.

Section 10. Investment Committee: The investment committee shall consist of the Commandant, Paymaster, Comptroller and two other members appointed by the Commandant. A monthly report will be available at each regular Detachment meeting.

ARTICLE IX – MEETINGS

Section 1. A regular business meeting will be held at least once a month by the officers and members of the Detachment.

Section 2. Any officer or committee chairman may call for a special meeting of all pertinent officers and members with notification one week prior to the proposed meeting date.

Section 3. Quorum. The Commandant, or the appropriate elected officer, and fifteen regular members must be present to convene a regular business meeting.

Section 4. The National Ensign, the United States Marine Corps flag, the Bible and the Detachment Charter or a copy thereof will be present at each meeting.

Section 5. An Order of Business (agenda) should be established and followed at each regular business meeting. Robert's Rules of Order, revised, will be the parliamentary authority.

ARTICLE X – DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. No officer, or committee, will conduct business in the name of the Detachment or obligate the Detachment's resources without the prior consent of the Board of Trustees or the majority of the members attending a regular business meeting.

Section 2. Any officer, elected or appointed, failing to make three consecutive meetings will be contacted via mail for an explanation as to their absence. An explanation will be received no later than the fourth regular business meeting following the first absence in order to retain the office. If no response is received, that member will be removed from that office. A member removed from office will be ineligible to run or hold any office until after the next scheduled election.

Section 3. The Commandant, Senior Vice Commandant, Junior Vice Commandant and Judge Advocate are elected Officers. All other Officers are appointed by the Commandant.

Section 4. All records, logs and other property belonging to the Marine Corps League Detachment #729 will be relinquished to the successor of that office. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action as allowed by National's Administrative Procedures.

Section 5. The following subsections are specific responsibilities of the elected and appointed officers. Officers are strictly charged with adherence to these duties:

- (A) Commandant. Presides at all detachment meetings, serves as advisor to all committees and is in direct charge of all functions of his Detachment. The Commandant administers the oath of membership to all new members of the Detachment.
- (B) Senior Vice Commandant. The Senior Vice Commandant renders every assistance to the Detachment Commandant. He should be familiar with the duties of the Commandant and be prepared to be the senior chairperson for projects and committees deemed important by the Commandant. As second in command, the Senior Vice Commandant's role is to serve as the presiding officer in the absence of the Commandant, and performs such duties as outlined in the Marine Corps League Ritual Manual and as recommended by the Commandant.
- (C) Junior Vice Commandant. The Junior Vice Commandant is responsible primarily for the recruiting and retention of members. He should be familiar with the operations and projects of the Detachment, influence programs and be a spokesperson to the Board of Trustees on what the members and prospective members are looking for from the organization. He is charged with selling ideas and programs to members that will assure growth of the organization.
